Main Street 41 Years Ago

Alex Branch, of Brooklyn, New York, returned to Appomattox last week for a visit, together with his son Carl. He brought with him a 1930 postcard view of downtown Appomattox (above). The card bears a 1¢ stamp and was addressed on August 4, 1930 to Mrs. Minnie Brown of Fulton Drive, Brooklyn (a relative) and sent by Mattie Watson.

Sidewalks were non-existent on Main St. The TIMES-VIRGINIAN was printed then (and continuously until 1969) in the building at the right. Virginia's Bonnet Shop and the Meat Market are now Jeanne's Coffee Shop and Steak House, Elliotts Florist and the School Board headquarters. It might be interesting if readers who recall events and buildings along Main Street in 1930 would contribute them to another article about those "good old Depression days."

Alex Branch is employed by Transworld Airlines. His son, Carl is a Quality Control and Sanitation Specialist with the U. S. Dept of Agriculture

Dwayne Catches 8 Lb. Cat!

Dwayne Scruggs, just about ready to celebrate his tenth birthday, caught this eight pound cat fish last week in a private pond. The fish is 26 and one -half inches long. A friend had caught a three and one-quarter pound bass just the night before. In the meantime, Dwayne's brother, Donald, was camping with Troop 546 at Monocan and now that the troop has returned the Scruggs are leaving this week for a trip to Pennsylvania, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cason(Mr. Scruggs' sister.) Oh yes, they're taking their fishing poles with them. It was Donald's pole and line that caught the BIG ONE!

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST
Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson for July 10, 1971 Subject: The message of Missions Key Text: "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the worldfor a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." Matt. 24:14.

The preaching of "this gospel of the kingdom" began, not with Jesus and the disciples, butwith the "good news" of salvation given to Adam and Eve after their fall. Gen. 3:15. It has always been God's intention that it be preached in "all the world for a witness unto "all nations." Combined with preaching of the gospel in every age there have been messages of warnings and hope especially applicable to the people of that age. The central theme of these messages has always been, "Christ our righteousness."

The three angels' messages. A term based on prophetic messages recorded in Rev. 14:6-11 Particularly used by Seventh-Day Adventist to discribe God's final warning and last appeal to the world before the close of probation and the second coming of Christ. Fear God. 'Fear' is used in Rev. 14:7 not in the sense of being afraid of God, but in the sense in coming to Him with reverence, and awe.

Rev. Waddill Will Direct Musical

"The Sounds of Truth" will appear at the Spout Spring Baptist Church on July 14, 1971, at 8 p.m. They will present the faith musical, Tell It Like It Is by Ralph Carmichael and Kurt Kaiser.

"The Sounds of Truth" is the name of the Youth Choir of Marion Baptist Church, Marion, Virginia. They are on a tour of Virginia presenting Tell It Like It Is.

The twenty-five member group features a number of soloists and uses guitars, drums, a tambourine and a trombone in addition to the piano for accompanying the musical.

Tell It Like It Is is a musical about God. In contemporary words and music it searches through false concepts about God and then presents a Biblical concept about God and how He relates to man.

The public is cordially invited to the presentation. Rev. Thomas A. Waddill is director of the group.

"Last Call, Christ Is Coming"

Looking into the Holy Word of God we find Jesus delivering some wonderful words to the decipies in John, Chapter 14, verses 2-3. "In my Father's house are many mansion; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

These wonderful words give each individual something to look forward to if we are ready to meet Him.

Christ told Nicodemus "Ye must be born again." Therefore we must be ready for Christ is coming just as he has promised.
